

WEEK # 11 THE GOSPEL OF MARK the kingdom God is at hand

Read 5:1-20

What does this account tell us

- a) about the person of Christ? b) about trusting in Christ?

What is an area of your life where you can trust Christ more?

What was the impact of this man's witness to the people of Decapolis?

Chapter 4 ends with this question: Mark 4:41 (ESV): And they were filled with great fear and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

How is that question answered in Chapter 5:1-20?

Jesus' gentle, healing message is for all Israel and for one Gentile. Why does Jesus tell the man he cannot come with him?"

How would you respond to a Christian who questions, in this modern day, whether we still need to believe in angels and demons?

Why do the demons know precisely who Jesus is?

Mark 5:18–20 (ESV): As he was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed with demons begged him that he might be with him.

19 And he did not permit him but said to him, "Go home to your friends and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you."

20 And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him, and everyone marveled.

Do you marvel at someone else's faith?

In what ways can someone who has just been saved be a better evangelist than someone who has been a Christian and studied the Bible for a long time? How can the latter improve his or her message?

Describe a scenario where Jesus might change someone you know so that they would once again be in their right mind and come home. Pray for that person.

Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged or confused you?
